- (d) retired practitioners; and
- (e) a practitioner who holds a practising certificate for less than thirty days in the event that a call day occurs in such circumstances.

(2) A practitioner seeking an exemption under this Part shall apply to the Committee setting out fully the relevant circumstances including, where applicable, why it was not, or it shall not be, possible to meet the requirements of this Part, taking into account the existence of training programmes conducted during the CPD period.

(3) The Committee may exempt a practitioner, in whole or in part, from compliance with this Part for a period not exceeding twelve months if —

- (a) the practitioner has been in practice for a period of more than forty years;

- (b) the practitioner, by reason of the practitioner's geographical location, financial hardship or physical or other disability, is not able to complete the required number of CPD points;
- (c) the practitioner has not practised due to maternity or medical leave;
- (d) the practitioner undertook activities of a CPD nature equivalent to the number of CPD points required by this Part as a holder of a practising certificate in another jurisdiction; or
- (e) the Committee considers it just based on the circumstances.

9. The Council shall, where a practitioner applies for the renewal of the practising certificate under section 36 of the Act, certify whether the practitioner has met the requirements of this Part by issuing the practitioner with a certificate of compliance.

Certificate of compliance

10. (1) A practitioner shall maintain for each CPD period a record and evidence of the approved CPD activities undertaken by the practitioner.

Record of CPD activities

(2) A practitioner shall keep the record and evidence required under sub-rule (1) for at least three CPD Periods after the end of the CPD Period to which the record and evidence relate.

PART III

APPROVAL OF CPD ACTIVITIES AND QUALITY ASSURED PROVIDERS

11. (1) A person shall apply to the Committee for the approval of an activity as a CPD activity.

Application for approval of CPD activity

(2) The Committee shall approve an activity as an approved CPD activity if the activity—

- (a) contains relevant intellectual or practical content of law or an area of law, or deals with a matter relevant to the practice of law;
- (b) is conducted by persons with practical or academic experience in law or an area of law; or
- (c) is relevant to continuing professional development of practitioners and the practice of law.

Qualifications
for quality assured
providers

12. (1) A provider may be quality assured and approved by the Committee as a quality assured provider for two years if the provider has—

- (a) experience in providing legal education; and
- (b) suitable facilities and infrastructure for training in CPD.

(2) The Committee may, in deciding whether or not to approve a provider, take into account the—

- (a) provider's experience in providing CPD activities over a reasonable period, not being less than six activities over a period of six months prior to the application;
- (b) capacity of the provider to comply with the conditions and terms attached to the provider's status;
- (c) standard and appropriateness of the material for participants attending the CPD activity; and
- (d) extent to which the provider will provide activities in regional areas.

(3) A provider of legal education that holds the equivalent of quality assured provider status in any Commonwealth jurisdiction is deemed, for the duration of the provider's equivalent status, to be a quality assured provider in Zambia for the purposes of this Part.

Amendment
or revocation of approval
for approved
CPD activity

13. (1) The Committee may amend or revoke the approval for an approved CPD activity if the quality assured provider—

- (a) breaches the terms and conditions of the approval;
- (b) is found guilty of professional misconduct;
- (c) has been convicted of an offence under any other written law and sentenced to a term of imprisonment exceeding six months without the option of a fine;
- (d) is an undischarged bankrupt;
- (e) enters into receiving or takes any action for the winding up or dissolution of the company; or
- (f) is the subject of an order that is made by a court for its compulsory winding up or dissolution.

(2) The Committee shall before amending or revoking the approval referred to in subsection (1), give the quality assured provider an opportunity to be heard.

14. (1) A quality assured provider shall maintain records for each approved CPD activity for a minimum of three CPD periods.
- (2) The records maintained under sub-rule (1) shall include—
- (a) the type and brief description of the CPD activity;
 - (b) the date on which the CPD activity was held;
 - (c) the names of the presenters, topics presented and the duration of presentations of the CPD activity; and
 - (d) a complete list of the participants of the CPD activity.
- (3) A quality assured provider shall submit the records kept for purposes of sub-rule (1) to the Legal Practitioners' Committee within twenty-one days of the provision of the CPD activity or receipt of a request to do so by the Legal Practitioners' Committee.

Records by quality assured providers and providers of approved CPD activities

PART IV

GENERAL PROVISIONS

15. (1) The Committee shall ensure that an audit of a percentage of practitioners as determined by the Legal Practitioners' Committee is conducted during each CPD period to determine compliance by practitioners with this Part.
- (2) The practitioners selected for audit shall supply the records kept for purposes of rule 10 relating to the audit period specified by the Legal Practitioners' Committee, within twenty-one days from the date of receipt of the notice of selection for audit.
16. (1) A person who alleges that a practitioner has failed to comply with these Rules shall lodge a complaint with the Legal Practitioners' Committee.
- (2) The Legal Practitioners' Committee may, by notice in writing, where it determines that a practitioner has not complied with these Rules, require the practitioner to comply with the Rules within the period specified in the notice.
- (3) The Legal Practitioners' Committee may, in the written notice to the practitioner referred to in sub-rule (2), require the practitioner to submit a plan to the Legal Practitioners' Committee, within twenty-one days from the date of the notice, setting out the steps the practitioner intends to take to comply with this Part within sixty days after the plan is submitted to the Legal Practitioners' Committee.

Audit of practitioners

Failure to comply with Rules

(4) A practitioner who is served with a notice under sub-rule (3) shall comply with the plan submitted by the practitioner to the Legal Practitioners' Committee.

(5) The Legal Practitioners' Committee shall, where a practitioner fails to comply with the requirements of this Part, reject the practitioner's application for renewal of the practising certificate.

Transitional provision

17. (1) A practitioner shall, during the initial CPD period, be deemed to have completed CPD points for that period with respect to activities completed by the practitioner and approved by the Committee.

(2) A practitioner shall, on or after the commencement of these Rules, be deemed to have completed the specified number of CPD points during the initial CPD period provided for in rule 7 in accordance with the requirements of rule 5.

- (2) The Committee shall before amending or revoking the approval referred to in subsection (1), give the quality assured provider an opportunity to be heard.

14. (1) A quality assured provider shall maintain records for each approved CPD activity for a minimum of three CPD periods.
- (2) The records maintained under sub-rule (1) shall include—
- (a) the type and brief description of the CPD activity;
 - (b) the date on which the CPD activity was held;
 - (c) the names of the presenters, topics presented and the duration of presentations of the CPD activity; and
 - (d) a complete list of the participants of the CPD activity.
- (3) A quality assured provider shall submit the records kept for purposes of sub-rule (1) to the Legal Practitioners' Committee within twenty-one days of the provision of the CPD activity or receipt of a request to do so by the Legal Practitioners' Committee.

Records by quality assured providers and providers of approved CPD activities

PART IV

GENERAL PROVISIONS

15. (1) The Committee shall ensure that an audit of a percentage of practitioners as determined by the Legal Practitioners' Committee is conducted during each CPD period to determine compliance by practitioners with this Part.
- (2) The practitioners selected for audit shall supply the records kept for purposes of rule 10 relating to the audit period specified by the Legal Practitioners' Committee, within twenty-one days from the date of receipt of the notice of selection for audit.
16. (1) A person who alleges that a practitioner has failed to comply with these Rules shall lodge a complaint with the Legal Practitioners' Committee.
- (2) The Legal Practitioners' Committee may, by notice in writing, where it determines that a practitioner has not complied with these Rules, require the practitioner to comply with the Rules within the period specified in the notice.
- (3) The Legal Practitioners' Committee may, in the written notice to the practitioner referred to in sub-rule (2), require the practitioner to submit a plan to the Legal Practitioners' Committee, within twenty-one days from the date of the notice, setting out the steps the practitioner intends to take to comply with this Part within sixty days after the plan is submitted to the Legal Practitioners' Committee.

Audit of practitioners

Failure to comply with Rules

(4) A practitioner who is served with a notice under sub-rule (3) shall comply with the plan submitted by the practitioner to the Legal Practitioners' Committee.

(5) The Legal Practitioners' Committee shall, where a practitioner fails to comply with the requirements of this Part, reject the practitioner's application for renewal of the practising certificate.

Transitional provision

17. (1) A practitioner shall, during the initial CPD period, be deemed to have completed CPD points for that period with respect to activities completed by the practitioner and approved by the Committee.

(2) A practitioner shall, on or after the commencement of these Rules, be deemed to have completed the specified number of CPD points during the initial CPD period provided for in rule 7 in accordance with the requirements of rule 5.
